- iii. At the Annual General Meeting, the chair shall preside until a successor is elected.

H. Party business

- i. The prime function of Party meetings is to provide delegates and members with the opportunity to participate in Party activities through social contact, political debate and policy discussion; and to establish objectives for the Party in the area for campaigning, the development of Party organisation and the promotion of links with sympathetic individuals and bodies within the wider community.

v. Party business shall in general have precedence at all General Meetings of this CLP. As far as possible the officers and/ or Executive Committees should deal with routine items of correspondence, finance and reports from other Party bodies or functional officers, provided that the General Meeting shall have the opportunity to question, amend and/ or ratify any recommendations put to them.

ii. Motions for discussion shall be made available to those entitled to attend with the notice and agenda of the relevant meeting, except for emergency motions which must be sent in writing to the secretary as soon as the nature of the emergency allows before the commencement of the meeting. Emergency business may be accepted by the majority of the meeting on the recommendation of the chair who shall interpret the term 'emergency' in a bona fide manner.

iii. Nominations of candidates for national positions (eg NEC, NPF) must be sent to the secretary 14 days before the meeting at which the members will decide who they wish to nominate. iv. Nominations (including self-nominations) for the Executive Committee must be with the secretary 14 days prior to the Annual General Meeting at which those officers will be elected. iii. Amendments to any motion may be moved and seconded from the floor of the meeting but shall be handed to the secretary in writing. Amendments shall be taken in order with one amendment being disposed of before another is moved. If an amendment is carried, the amended resolution becomes a motion to which further amendments may be moved.

iv. The mover of an original motion which has been amended no longer has a right of reply. Anyone who has spoken to the original motion may also speak in the debate on an amendment to the motion.

K. Procedural motions

i. A motion of 'next business' shall not be taken until the mover and seconder of a motion have been heard. Any motion 'of next business', 'that the vote be taken', 'to adjourn', 'of no-confidence in the chair' shall be moved, seconded and put to the vote without discussion; after such a vote the chair need not accept a further procedural motion for a period of 20 minutes.

L. Motion to rescind resolution

i. No motion to rescind a resolution of this CLP shall be valid within three months from the date on which the resolution was carried.

M. Voting on motions

i. Voting shall be by show of hands except where the constitution of the Party provides for a ballot vote or where this body decides otherwise. In the event of there being an equality of votes on any matter decided by a show of hands, the chair may give a casting vote provided that s/he has not used an ordinary vote. If the chair does not wish to give a casting vote, the motion is not carried.

N. Ballot votes

i. The election of officers and/ or representatives of this body shall be by secret paper eliminating ballot either in rounds or by preferential vote. The election of Executive Committee members or large delegations may be by secret paper ballot using a multiple vote where members may not cast more votes than the number of positions to be filled. Any quotas for women laid down in the Party constitution which apply to this body shall be incorporated in the arrangements for the secret ballot.

ii. Ballot votes shall be held at meetings to select candidates and where otherwise provided for in the Party constitution; and where requested by any member supported by at least two others.

iii. In the event of a tie on a secret paper ballot the chair shall not have a casting vote. Where appropriate, the ballot shall be retaken and in the event of a continual tie lots may be drawn.

In a preferential ballot, the tie shall be broken by establishing which candidate had the highest number of first preference votes or took the earliest lead on transfers.

O. Chair's ruling

i. Any breach of or question to the rules or standing orders may be raised by a member rising to a point of order. The chair's ruling on any point arising from the rules or standing orders is final unless challenged by not less than four members; such a challenge shall be put to the meeting without discussion and shall only be carried with the support of two thirds of the members present.

P. Miscellaneous

Smoking is not permitted at any Party meeting.

ii. Any member acting in an unruly or disruptive manner, in contravention of the standing orders, may be removed from the meeting by action of the chair. The chair shall put such a motion to the meeting, which to be carried shall require the support of two-thirds of those present and voting. Any member who has been removed from two meetings during a 12-month period shall, with the approval of the appropriate RD(GS), be ineligible to attend meetings of this body for the next 12 months.

iii. This body accepts the principle of minimum quotas for women at all levels of representation within the Party and shall take steps to ensure that 50 per cent of any delegation shall be women and, where only one delegate is appointed, a woman shall hold the position at least every other year.

iv. Job shares shall be allowed for officer positions in accordance with procedural rules made by the NEC.

v. The NEC shall set out the conditions under which job shares are allowed, including any positions for which job shares may not be permitted, nomination requirements, arrangements for ensuring that gender quota are maintained and arrangements to prevent multiple voting. The NEC may immediately incorporate these conditions into this rule book, subject to approval at Annual Conference 2019, when this sub clause shall expire

vi. The general provisions of the constitution and rules of the Party shall apply to this CLP. No changes shall be made to the rules and standing orders of this organisation except at an Annual or Special General meeting called for this purpose and carried with the support of two-thirds of the members present. No alteration shall be effective until it has received the approval of the appropriate officer of the NEC of the Party.
